IV. The attention of the Government has also been engaged to the manner in which certain bodies or agencies, such as Bamboo Development Agency under Industries Department, National Rural Health Mission, Mizoram State Health Care Society, etc. under Health Department, Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan under School Education Department, and the likes may have procured various assets for their respective establishments. Even though these bodies/agencies may have their own functional guidelines, it is felt essential to bring them under the overall administrative ambit of the State Government without violating the essence of their respective guidelines. All these bodies or agencies are therefore informed to follow the established procedures in all matters relating to incurring of expenditures on stores. This would necessarily entail, inter alia, obtaining prior concurrence of the respective nodal departments as may be required before making any purchase. It also follows that all purchase of vehicles should be made only after obtaining the approval of the General Administration Department.

V. All Administrative Heads and all Heads of Departments are requested to issue necessary directions within their respective departments along these lines.
